

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

62.39

MAR 1923

Gladioli

for 1920

TERMS: Cash with order, or satisfactory reference.

Prices quoted are for clean, mature stock of $1\frac{1}{4}$ inches or more, and include delivery by parcel post.

Six of a kind at the dozen rate.

The single rate is one-tenth the dozen price, but does not include postage on orders amounting to less than $1.00.

This list cancels all previous prices.

Thomas M. Proctor
71 South Street
Wrentham, Mass.

NAMED GLADIOLI

	Per doz.
America. Soft pink, lightly suffused lavender, with small violet blotch	$.50
Attraction. Rich rose-red, with large creamy white blotch60
Augusta. Pure white, except for occasional faint markings of pink50
Baron Hulot. Deep blue-violet, with narrow medial lines of white60
Chicago White. White, with narrow lavender stripes on lower petals60
Crackerjack. Rich red; throat stippled maroon on yellow ground50
Czar Peter. Deep claret, with white medial lines on lower petals60
Empress of India. Rich dark red, shading to maroon at the edges85
Europa. Pure white. One of the few varieties without stains of pink	1.50
Firebrand. Brilliant orange-scarlet, with yellowish throat75
George Paul. Harvard crimson, shading lighter at the throat	1.00
Glory (Kunderd). Creamy buff, suffused pink. Edges of petals ruffled	1.00
Glory of Holland. Ivory white, with a flush of delicate pink60
Halley. Salmon pink, with rich creamy throat brushed with rose60
Hohenstaufen. White, tinted ivory at the throat; large Indian-red blotch	1.00
Ida Van. Soft red, with deeper shadings of cardinal in the throat60
Independence. Rich Begonia pink, with throat markings of deep red40
Lavender Beauty. Pale lavender, with a carmine stain on creamy throat	1.00
Liberty. Bright red, strikingly marked with primrose at the throat75
Lily Lehman. Ivory white, often with a delicate flush of pink	1.25
Loveliness. Rich cream with a light suffusion of apricot at the throat	1.50
Master Wietse. Pure royal purple, shaded deeper; no blotch or throat markings85

	Per doz.
Meadowvale. Glistening white, with narrow crimson lines at throat	$.60
Minnesota. Pale primrose, with deeper shadings, and rich cherry throat50
Miss Helen Franklin. Pure white, with violet throat; ruffled edges	3.00
Mrs. Francis King. Light scarlet, with vermilion shadings. Very long spike . .	.60
Mrs. Frank Pendleton, Jr. Salmon pink, with striking blood-red throat	1.00
Mrs. Keur. Peach-blossom pink, beautifully shaded; crimson and yellow throat	20.00
Mrs. Watt. Beautiful deep rose-crimson, without shading or markings85
Myrtle. Delicate arbutus pink, shading lighter to a creamy throat	1.50
Niagara. Rich cream, often splashed carmine; throat marked the same85
Panama. Brilliant Hermosa pink, with deeper lines at the throat85
Peace. Snow white, with featherings of pale lilac at the throat85
Pink Perfection. La France pink, often slightly mottled	1.25
Pride of Hillegom. Brilliant fiery scarlet, with slightly deeper throat	15.00
Prince of Wales. Beautifully shaded apricot; throat tinted yellow	2.00
Princeps. Bright scarlet, with conspicuous white blotch on lower petals60
Rouge Torch. Creamy white, with torch-like tongues of red at throat	1.00
Scarsdale. Deep Jacinthe, softening to lavender, with rose tintings85
Schwaben. Sulphur yellow, with reddish-brown blotch at the throat	1.00
Sulphur Queen. Pale lemon yellow, without markings of any kind75

MIXTURES

Gold Medal Mixture. Light shades; the best selection for cut-flowers75
Silver Medal Mixture. Mostly light, and all suitable for cutting60
Bronze Medal Mixture. Light and dark shades in a wide range of color50
Primulinus Hybrids. Dainty "nasturtium" shades, mostly self-colors50

